Improving Nicely

Amiel Sanguinetti, who underwent an operation at the Sutter Creek sanitarium on Friday last for a swelling of the right knee, caused by a sprain received lately, is rapidly recovering the effects of the operation, which is claimed to have been a complete success, as nothing serious was wrong with the knee, and that the lad will soon be up and around again.

The leg was injured several months ago by the 13 year old boy, and began to swell and cause him much pain.
Local treatment, was given it, but the operation was finally decided upon as the only remedy for a successful cure. Dr. P. S. Goodman, proprietor of the sanitarium, assisted by Dr. Lynch of Amador City, performed the operation.

JACKSON CITY ITEMS

Local Happenings About Amador's County Seat

Mrs Tregloan, the cook at the hospital, returned Saturday evening, after a month's vacation in San Francisco and other points.
She resumed her duties at the hospital this week.

J. H. Griffin, who resides on Peak's hill, returned home, after spending several weeks in El Dorado city, where he helped to erect a home for his son-in-law.

Mr and Mrs Meek of Jackson are spending their vacation at the capital city, taking in the state fair and other places of interest. They expect to be absent for a few weeks.

Mrs Case, Mrs Thomas White, Mr and Mrs Richards, all of Ange's Camp, paid Jackson a business visit on Saturday last.

In the contested land case of United States vs. Fayette Mace the taking of testimony will be had in Jackson on the 16th of October, and the final hearing in Sacramento before the register and receiver on the 16th of November.

Mr and Mrs Tobias Hawkins left last week for a couple of week's visit to Oakland.

Miss Rose Ratto returned this week, after a two months' vacation, during which she visited in Oroville, San Francisco and other places. She has resumed her position at the National hotel.

Miss Mary Prosser came up from the city Tuesday, and will reopen her millinery business for the fall trade as soon as the new stock arrives.

Attempts Suicide

A young Jackson Miss, who thought life was not worth striving for if she could not follow the dictations of her own desires, became dejected when her mother reprimanded her for a trivial offense, and attempted suicide by swallowing a small amount of carbolic acid. The girl was caught in the act, and the bottle knocked out of her grasp, thus saving her from an agonizing death. Dr. Gall was hastily summoned and administered antidotes, after using the stomach pump effectively on the now penitent girl.

The young Miss received severe burns about her mouth, and her throat is in a very serious condition, owing to the effects of the acid.

Pretty Wedding

At 6 o'clock on Wednesday morning last Miss Loretta Mae Rose and Arthur Stanley James were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of her mother, Mrs Steve Rose on Stasal ave., this city.

The wedding ceremony was a beautifully arranged affair, the knot being tied by the Rev. Thos. H. Nicholas of the Methodist church.
The sitting room in which the couple were made one, was profusely decorated in ferns and carnations. The dining room was decorated with ferns and roses.

Mrs Rose, the mother, had a bounteous breakfast prepared for her early morning guests, the wedding cake being a feast in itself.

Miss Winnie Dufrene, the bridesmaid, was gowned in rose colored silk and the bride in cream messaline silk, carrying a bouquet of white rosebuds. The bride was given away by her uncle W. D. Dufrene. The happy pair left on the stage for a honeymoon along the coast, which will last for several weeks, after which they will return to Jackson where they will make their future home.

Improves Property

William Harvey, foreman at the Zeila mine has made notable improvements to the property recently purchased at No. 123 Broadway. A kitchen, bedroom, bathroom and large pantry are built onto the old house, and all modern improvements installed. The entire structure will be painted, and the lawn in front of the building will also receive the necessary attention in making it one of the finest in the city.

of smallpox was released from quarantine.

One case of scarlet fever in a family residing about five miles from Sutter Creek was quarantined by the health officer.

Criminal Returns.

Justice returns in criminal cases for month of August for township two, with T H Gartlin as justice, was one fine of $15 for criminal action against W. Scott Burgin, brought on complaint of J E Kelly for misdemeanor, disturbing the peace. The prisoner was sentenced to a term of 60 days in the county jail. The jail sentence, however, was suspended until further orders of court.

No other returns were filed for the month.

To Start Show

Henry Richards, a former resident of Angels Camp, has recently moved to Sutter Creek, where he will open a moving picture show in Levaggi's opera house of that town.

Richards also contemplates opening a picture show in this town, and has been here on a number of occasions trying to secure suitable quarters for such a place.

BUSINESS MEETING

Republicans Hold Busy Session In Sutter Creek

A meeting of the republican county central committee was held in Sutter Creek, early this week, and was attended by all the republican candidates of Amador county except those from the Volcano district who were unable to be present, owing to force of circumstances.

An advisory committee was elected consisting of C. M. Kelley township 1; Charles Bloom, township 2; Joe Kidd, township 3; Edgar Deacon, township 4; Henry Meyers, township 5; and Dan Bona appointed at large.

The various candidates were assessed a small amount in order to help defray expenses of the coming campaign, which promises to be one of the best managed campaigns ever waged in the county.

The speaking has been mapped out, and will be adhered to by all the candidates commencing on October 25th at Drytown, and continuing until election.

The republicans will have such speakers as Judge Fred V. Wood, Wm. Snyder, and Wm. H. Greenhalgh in their party, and it will be worth the time spent hearing the speakers at any one of the places that will later be published.

Ball Team Reorganized

Jackson's baseball team has disbanded.
This decision was reached last week. The last few games under the old regime were frosts both in the character of the play and attendance, so manager and players came to the conclusion that the team's usefulness as an attraction was at an end, and dissolution was the result.

Jackson, however, will not be without a team. Other local lovers of the sport have consented to take hold of the players—men of business ability and grit. The ball team was immediately reorganized, and J. A.
Piccardo elected to manage the new club.
He needs no praise for his enthusiasm in all local enterprises that tend to boost our city. His affable and business like methods are known by all who have had the pleasure of meeting him. He is usually selected as floor director, when a notable ball is given, and under his directions success is always assured. He has built up a host of friends, and a good business with his associate, George Vela through fair business methods, and we feel safe in saying he can give Jackson such base ball as will be well worth seeing for the remainder of the season.

The old players will hold together to a man, and that means Jackson will have the strongest team in the foothills. Valley Springs and Sacramento, two victorious teams, will be played this season, and we are positive the close of the season will be stronger than the opening.

Excellent Program

Jackson's band concert was held on Sunday evening of last week, and proved all that anyone could expect. The players are all taking special interest in their work, and the result is very apparent at the concerts.

The collection was made on Monday by Palmer and Laverone and substantial funds raised to warrant a solid organization, if harmony continues in the future as at present.

Following is next week's concert:

1. "Marvel," March - H. Filmore 2. "Strolling in the Moonlight," Schott. - Beyer 3. "American Beauties," Intermezzo - F. J. St. Clair 4. "Criterion," Ov. - H. C. Miller 5. Popular—
  - (a) "Cubanola Glide," H Von Filzer
  - (b) "Play that lovey dovey waltz some more," - Kendy Mills 6. "Story of a flower," - A. W. Neff 7. "Bohemian girl," Select. - Balfe
8. "Ben," March - Archie S. Moore

Fine Place of Business

Vogeli, the jewelry man, has received his new display cases, and erected the same in his new jewelry store on Main street. The tiling has also been laid in the doorway of this beautiful store, and the place is now on a par with any city store.

BIG FAILURE IN JACKSON

C. Giovannoni & Co. are Forced to Close Store Doors

The general merchandise house of C.
Giovannoni & Co., including the macaroni factory connected therewith, closed its doors on Monday last. This is the heaviest financial failure that has occurred in Jackson, and for that matter in Amador county, for many years. The crash was not altogether unexpected, as it had been known for a long time that the firm was financially embarrassed. There was no attachment levied, the creditors deeming that course unnecessary, and a useless expense, but it was hinted that the firm would be forced to suspend business if such a course was not taken voluntarily. So Monday at noon a notice was posted on the closed doors, "Closed for stock taking," and the whole establishment has been closed since. There does not seem to be anything going on inside.

The amount of liabilities is merely a matter of conjecture. It is variously estimated at from $20,000 to $25,000 and some places it is even higher. The assets consists of the stock in the store, which has been greatly run down of late, and several pieces of real estate, all incumbered. The credit system is conceded to be the cause of this failure.
The book debts are estimated at over $30,000, enough to wipe out all liabilities, but if they were collectable. But most of this is worthless, extending over a period of years, and outlaid.

Considerable of the liabilities of the firm is represented by borrowed money, from various parties, to tide the firm over the crisis. This method was adopted in hope that conditions would improve, that collections would be made, and the firm get on its feet. It was continued, until the borrowing power was exhausted, and there was no other alternative but to quit.

This house has been doing as large, if not larger, business than any general merchandise house in Jackson. Connected with the firm were the three Giovannoni brothers, and two brothers-in-law, all having families, and all more or less participating in the active work of the business.

A meeting of creditors was to be held in San Francisco yesterday, but had to be postponed on account of the absence of A. Caminetti, attorney for the bankrupt firm. The merchant creditors are represented by the board of trade of San Francisco.
There is no prospect of the firm resuming business, and an assignment is likely if the creditors whose claims represent borrowed cash can be pacified; otherwise insolvency proceedings may be the last resort.

This failure is to be laid at the door of the credit system, and the lesson to be learned from it is the urgency of getting out of the credit rut which has been nurtured in this community for so many years, to the detriment of all concerned.
Merchants should get together as they do in other cities, and protect themselves from the unscrupulous who live by bilking business houses by running up bills they donot intend to pay. A board of trade was organized over a year ago to take the initiative in this direction, among other things, but evidently perished in the process of birth. If this organization did nothing else than regulate the credit system, it would accomplish a lasting benefit for this city, and all concerned would be only too glad to contribute the dues necessary to keep it moving.

'New Home' In Jackson

L. C. White, the local furniture man has added a new line to his stock. He has recently accepted the agency for the New Home sewing machine, and has several on exhibition at his furniture store on Main street, Jackson. It is unnecessary to comment on the efficiency of the machine, as it has stood the test for years. The machine has a patent drop head and lock for all compartments, and is in every way equal to any make machine on the market.

An Early Trip

A three o'clock call was given Dr.
Gall this morning by the stork, who was on its way to the Chichizola ranch, where it left a big baby girl at the home of Mr and Mrs Serrota.

MINE NEWS ALONG LODGE

Interesting Accounts of Mines Located In Amador Co.

Bunker Hill

The work of grading for the additional twenty stamps to the mill was started Monday morning. A force of twenty men was put to work on this job, and it is the intention to press it through to completion with all possible speed. It is thought that by the beginning of next year the 40 stamps will be dropping. The clean-up for August month was practically the same as the preceding month—$24,000. The 1950 level continues to open up in fine shape.

Newman.

The Calaveras Citizen says that Mr. Esola, superintendent of the Newman mine, near West Point, has been for the last two weeks shipping high grade ore by freight teams to Martell station, whence it will be shipped to smelters for treatment. There was reported to be about 50 tons to go, leaving about 150 tons second grade to be milled at the mine.

Lincoln Consolidated.

Work is going on rapidly at the Lincoln Consolidated at Sutter Creek. Operations began July 16, and since that time the machinery, derrick and collar of shaft have been repaired and put in good condition, and the shaft during the past thirty days put down 126 feet, at which point water was encountered. New 16x16 inch timbers have been put in the shaft down to this point, and the shaft straightened. A short distance above the water a hard hanging wall came in, and smaller timbers will now be used.
The company started its new electric pump last week. It is a turbine, and will throw 350 gallons per minute. There is still caved ground to go through, but from the 350 level down the shaft is thought to be in good condition. About 15 men are employed, and more will be put on as soon as the 500 level is opened.

The Kennedy mining company have erected a large flagstaff in the rear of their office.
The pole is about 260 feet high and is mounted with a large gilded ball. A weather indicator is also attached to the pole.

The Zeila mining company are having extensive improvements in the way of painting done at their plant. The interior and exterior of the office has undergone a thorough cleaning and painting, and presents a very attractive appearance.

Magnificent Millinery

McGary's big department store will have their regular fall and winter millinery opening on Saturday, September 10th, and will exhibit the finest line of hats ever seen in Jackson.

This opening is always a popular event for all those who can only visit the town on special occasions, and the proprietor has prepared a special display for this coming event.

Dr. Franklin Returns

Dr. Blake Franklin has returned to Jackson, after spending several days in San Francisco, arranging to have his office fixtures and other necessary articles used in following his profession, shipped to this city.

Dr. Franklin has recently had two front rooms on the second floor of the Kay building renovated, and will use them for his office.

Prepared for Conference

Rev. Thos. H. Nicholas will leave for Pacfic Grove next Thursday to attend the annual conference, and to receive his appointment for next year. Rev. Nicholas has supplied the church in this city for three years, and now desires better educational advantages for his family.
The many friends of the genial clergyman will wish him much success in whatever field he might be assigned to.

Card of Thanks.

WHAT IS THE ISSUE?

Theodore Roosevelt is cavorting over the country making political speeches to admiring thousands. It is his nature to be before the footlights. He enjoys notoriety, and he is certainly getting, if not all he wants of it, at least a surfeit from the standpoint of industrial peace and stability. The principal theme of the ex-president's speeches is honesty in public and official life: he is against crooks wherever found. In short, he is in favor of the right and against wrong, whether private or official. We can see nothing distinctively Rooseveltian in such a declaration. He certainly cannot claim any originality either in the idea itself or its advocacy. It is the same as right-thinking men in all ages and all nations have contended for. No one, except those of the crooked class, will take issue with him on this proposition. There is nothing to justify going into hysterics over this; or the crowning of the redoubtable colonel as the political deliverer. The end aimed at is desirable, but what definite and practicable plan does he propose for its accomplishment? On this point there is no new cure-all in his creed. Indeed, there could be none, beyond the deterrent influence of laws for the protection of society by the punishment of wrong-doing—a remedy which is as old as the human race. Roosevelt's speaking tour is interpreted as a step toward another term as president. The thought of his candidacy will not help business interests. He is classed with the insurgent, or as he prefers to designate it, the "progressive," wing of the party. It is really the radical element, of which senator La Follette, Pinchot and ex-secretary Garfield are the prominent exponents, as against the conservative element, of which president Taft is the distinguished representative, backed by the solid commercial interests of the nation. To describe the situation as between progressives and non-progressives is misleading, and entirely out of place. The sincerity and patriotism of either side are beyond question. It is simply a difference of opinion as to which line of policy will better promote the progress desired. The republican party is now and always has been the party of progress. Under the guidance of that party the United States have prospered as no other nation has ever prospered in a like period of time. Some are disposed to believe that the amazing rapidity of development has not been an unmixed good. It is safe to say under republican rule we shall keep in the path of progress, no matter whether this or that faction of the party gains the ascendancy. The trouble would begin if through the factional strife, the real reactionaries—the democratic party—should get in the saddle, and give us a taste of their pet schemes of progress.

The proposed city ordinance, making radical changes in the present law governing the retail liquor business in Jackson, was put over until next month for decisive action. It was not discussed at all at the meeting of the trustees held last week. It may be safely asserted, however, that while the records show merely a postponement of the matter, the ordinance will not be passed, as the trustees realize that it is a dangerous measure in several respects.

The name of Lincoln-Roosevelt league, as the designation of the prevailing faction in the primary election, will no longer be heard of. The organization has been disbanded, and its membership merged into the republican party. That was certainly a wise stroke of policy, tending to party harmony and success in the campaign now on.

Congressman Englebright announces that, if reelected, he will not vote for Cannon for the speakership of the next congress. Our representative is to be commended for this resolve. He doubtless thinks as much of Cannon as he ever did. But the welfare of the republican party is of more importance than the personal ambition of any individual member—whether Roosevelt, or Cannon or any one else. The issue of whether Cannon shall or shall not be retained in the speaker's chair involves no question of principle; it is simply a matter of policy. To select another man as speaker will remove one fruitful source of dissatisfaction, and tend to promote harmony. And this of itself is sufficient to justify the reelection of a new speaker.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES

News of Interest from Near-by Counties

Geo. W. Kirkley, who up till recently had been the superintendent of the Kenross mine property, was arrested this week in San Francisco on a charge of embezzlement. Deputy sheriff Crossett went to the city after Kirkley and is expected back with him tonight, Friday. We understand that he is accused of getting away with $30,000 through stuffed pay rolls.—Prospect.

W. J. Lewis, father of Bud Lewis of the Forest Service, dropped dead at his home in Copperopolis, Wednesday from excitement and over exertion, caused by two large forest fires near his home. Deceased had lived in Copperopolis for the past 44 years. A widow, son and daughter and several grand children survive him. He was 78 years of age.—Tuolumne Independent.

Joe Tassano met with a painful accident Tuesday, at Knudsen's mill, near Lyon's creek. Tassano was working at the edger when his sleeve caught in the rollers. His left arm was rapidly drawn in and almost torn from the socket before the machinery could be stopped. Dr. English and two nurses immediately left by auto for the scene of the accident bringing Tassano down to the Sierra hospital, where it was found that the arm was fearfully mangled, necessitating its amputation above the elbow to save the man's life. Everything possible was done to relieve the sufferer who was in a serious condition from shock and fearful pain following the accident.—Independent.

The forest fire, which burned in the vicinity of Confidence, on the West Side Co's lands for the past two weeks is now under control, after burning over 100 square miles of territory. The fire is said to have been started near Thompson's Meadow's by a hunter, who was lost in the woods and when night came on he lit a camp fire which got beyond his control with the above disastrous results. The West Side Lumber Company kept a force of fire fighters on the grounds to protect their choice timber, as most of the burned territory was lands from which their best timber had been removed. Many stock men had their ranges and dry feed destroyed. While the loss to the West Side Co. is comparatively small, yet the wages paid to the fire fighters by the company to protect their interests amounted to over $300 per day.—Independent.

For sometime past negotiations have been pending for the sale of the App and Rawhide mines, and it is currently reported that the transfer of the famous mines with all their elaborate equipment has been made. The Democrat has been unable to verify this report. Capt. W. A. Nevills, who practically owns the entire property, which is operated under the corporate name of the Rawhide Gold Mining Company, has been absent from the county for the past month, and inquiry at the App mine, which is being run at full blast, elicited the response that the office management had no information concerning the reported deal, and that the property was being operated as usual under the same management.—Union Democrat.

Friday of last week seven hundred and fifty pounds of dynamite exploded at the Queen mine near Rich Gulch, but fortunately no one was injured by the explosion. The powder, which was thought to be of no account, owing to the age, had been left on the dump of the mine in its original boxes. Superintendent Courtmarsh and one of the mine employees on the day of the explosion had gone into one of the tunnels for a lot of wedges that had been left in there for the purpose of bringing them out and placing them in the sun to dry. They loaded a car with wedges and on their return from the tunnel Courtmarsh picked up what he supposed was an empty powder box about half full of sawdust. He carried it to the dump near to the place where the supposed useless powder was and threw the box over the bank a distance of about 10 feet. Instantly there was an explosion, and in an instant the powder in the boxes on top of the dump was seen to blaze. Courtmarsh started to run, and when he had reached a distance of about thirty yards the entire seven hundred and fifty pounds exploded with a fearful crash. Courtmarsh was knocked to the ground and cut on the breast with a piece of flying rock but otherwise was uninjured. The force of the explosion tore half of the blacksmith shop away and wrecked the bunk house, while at the boarding house the windows and sashes were all broken as well as over half the dishes. It is a fortunate circumstance that there were none of the men who are employed at the mine anywhere near where the explosion occurred, otherwise there would have been a fearful loss of life.—Citizen.

Don't Have to Run

Any person who was voted for at the recent primary election and thereby became the nominee of any party for office can decline the honor by notifying the county clerk. County clerk, Ted C. Atwood has sent out certificates of nomination to all persons whom the returns show are entitled to have their names go upon the ballots when they are printed. Any person receiving such notification who does not wish to become "a good thing" with no chance of reward can decline to have his name printed on the ticket by so informing the clerk.—Nugget.

The Picture Plan.

U S Gregory, sheriff for fourteen years, and candidate for at least four years more, has branched out into a new method of trying to win votes. He has had several thousand lithographic pictures of himself struck off in San Francisco, a portion on cardboard and the rest on paper and mounted on cardboard, after the fashion of Hiram Johnson, who made such a whirlwind canvass for the republican nomination for governor, and who was not personally acquainted with one in a thousand of the voters. It is argued that if the plan worked so charmingly in the larger field, why not equally as well in the more restricted field of Amador county. So the pictures of 'U S Gregory, regular democratic nominee for sheriff,' and late aspirant for the republican nomination as well by the circular and stump speech route, are being sown broadcast over the county, the larger one for ornamental purposes in show windows, etc., and the others for distribution as introduction campaign cards. The pretty picture business is a happy inspiration, and will make the sheriff familiar to the thousands of voters, to whom he is personally a stranger. This move is being commented upon throughout the county in various ways. Some are inquiring if the original is "stuck on himself," if the pictures are to convey the idea that after so many years in office he is no longer able to get around as formerly to make a personal campaign; some go as far as to ask whether he is getting "vain and foolish with increasing years." Anyhow the Ledger office acknowledges a valuable addition to its art gallery.

Farewell Party

Sept. 5—Mr and Mrs Hinton gave a farewell party on Saturday last to their niece, Miss Belle Hinton of Dayton, Washington, who has been spending her summer vacation with them.

Miss Hinton, on her return to Dayton, will enter the Dayton hospital, where she will add the profession of trained nursing to her already large list of accomplishments. We hope her success in that field will be as pronounced as that of public school teaching, which she has given up to take up what she believes to be a wider and more useful work.

Miss Hinton made many warm friends during her brief visit, and regrets are expressed by all that she leaves us so soon.

Although farewell parties are always sad, the assembled guests kept mirth and laughter ever flowing with games, music, and dancing until midnight, when they were summoned to the dining room where a dainty supper awaited them. The guests present were: Mr and Mrs Stowers, Mr and Mrs Robinson, Mrs Merrow, Mrs Evans, Mrs Jose Pigeon, Mrs Harvey Callahan, Nellie Robinson, Bea and Ina Merrow, Frances Evans, Margaret and Laverne Stowers, Grover Deaver, Elmer Evans, Marion Robinson, John Bagleon and Fred Pigeon.

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Jackson Citizens Show the Certain Way Out.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Jackson citizen says:

Mrs Thomas Coombs, 173 Main street, Jackson, Cal., says: "Last summer I had a great deal of trouble from my back and kidneys and nothing helped me until I used Doan's kidney pills. My back ached constantly and I always felt tired and worn out. There were puffy spots beneath my eyes and swelling was noticeable in other parts of my body. I had taken Doan's kidney pills while living in Central City three years previous and remembering how beneficial that had been, I again procured a supply. In a short time they drove away the dull, heavy ache in my back, and restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I cannot speak too highly in praise of Doan's kidney pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Wed in Oakland

Miss Bertha Eudey, a native daughter of Jackson, was quietly married in Oakland on Wednesday, in presence of relatives of the contracting parties, to J. C. Littlefield, who is in the government employ at Washington, and a nephew of congressmen Littlefield, of Maine. After the wedding feast at the Eudey residence in Oakland, the happy pair left for Ogden, where they will visit relatives of the groom, and thereafter proceed to Washington, where they will make their home. The bride is an attractive and charming young lady, daughter of the late Henry Eudey, for many years foreman of the Zella mine, and afterward owner of the Bank of Amador county. Her many friends wish the fair bride a long and happy matrimonial life.

The socialists, of whom there are just an even thirty in Tuolumne county, according to the vote cast for J. Stitt Wilson, their candidate for governor, are demanding that candidates of other parties receiving nominations upon their ticket step down and out. They claim, and probably not without reason, that no one not fully sharing their convictions should be masquerading on a socialist ticket. Still, it will have to be admitted that socialists had full control of their own conscience and some must have broken away and violated the party pledge in voting for democrats and republicans in the primary election. Inasmuch as the names of the successful candidates on that ticket were written in, the socialists assert that they can be legally withdrawn. They don't want any candidates on their ticket unless they be of the Simon pure socialist variety.—Democrat.

The Ione Fire Brick Company is rushed with orders just now, and superintendent Cunningham desires to put on another shift in order to keep pace with his orders, but men for that work seem to be hard to obtain.—Echo.

Grove. L. Johnson was defeated for the republican nomination for the assembly. He was given one prohibition vote, and that entitles him to have his name on the ballot next November.—Ex.

A news dispatch from Sacramento says that the Union Dredging Company, organized by Philadelphia capitalists, has just purchased 200 acres of land near Folsom, in Sacramento county, for gold dredging purposes and will build several dredges to mine it. These dredges will cost about $100,000 each. The land purchased was previously owned by Mrs Louise Fassler of the Willow Springs ranch, but has been under bond to the dredging company for some time. It has been thoroughly prospected with drills and shows good values in gold.—Nugget.

A crew started out yesterday morning for the hills to gather sugar pine nuts. They are wanted by the Forest service and will be planted and when grown to the proper size set out on depleted areas. Seventy five cents a pound is paid for the nuts.—Banner.

Benj. H. Day, the pharmacist, left Ione for his former home at St. Paul, Minnesota, Thursday morning. Mr Day has been a resident among us for nearly three years, during which time he has conducted the prescription department of the Ione Pharmacy, and has made many friends here who regret to say good-bye, yet they all wish him god-speed on his journey, and hope for his return before many moons.—Echo.

At county hospital, Andrew J. Shine, steward, has utilized the bees to be guardians of the vineyard against the vandalism of boy robbers. Locating the hives among the vines, he connected them by small wires. When the band made the invasion they brushed the wires, which disturbed the little fighters and they swarmed upon the boys. There was such stampeede and howling that neighbors' attention was attracted and they beheld a wild and disorderly retreat of lads from the vineyard. That place is safe from molestation.—Banner.

Last Saturday Charley Swift was helping move a heavy derrick, and the ground being a side hill, several men were helping to steady it so it would not fall over. Mr Swift had the misfortune to slip, and one foot caught under the wheel of the wagon and his toes were badly mashed. At present writing he is taking matters very philosophically, lying in bed with his foot on a cushion. It is probable he will not have to undergo an operation.—Echo.

Mrs. McIntyre

Mrs Alurina McIntyre, who passed away at her home in Volcano on August 29, was born in the state of New York, on March 3rd, 1810. She moved with her parents, Asa and Clarisa Burt into Chemung county, N. Y., when that part of the state was first being settled.

She was married to William McIntyre on September 1st 1845.

Mr McIntyre came to California in March 1852, expecting to remain only a couple of years, but instead of returning to New York, he sent for his family, which at that time consisted of his wife and daughter, who is now Mrs Benj. Ross, a little son having died after Mr McIntyre's departure for the goldfields. Another daughter, now Mrs Finley Goodman, was born to them after Mrs McIntyre arrived in California.

Mrs McIntyre came by way of Panama, crossing the Isthmus by rail shortly after the road was completed, and continued on her journey by steamer to San Francisco, thence to Sacramento by steamer and from there to Volcano by stages, arriving about the 28th of December, 1859. She was known for a number of years, by the old settlers as "Lady Mc."

From childhood, she was very industrious, and when not engaged in her household duties she was ever busy with her needle, making embroidery or patchwork quilts, the latter being her favorite pastime, she having pieced and completed more than one hundred patchwork quilts, and continued to enjoy the work until she had passed her 83 year. She always loved to be out of doors, and spent a great deal of time walking or visiting with her friends who were less fortunate than herself.

She leaves besides her two daughters Mrs Sarah F. Ross, and Mrs Minnie H. Goodman, nine grandchildren and ten great grandchildren, also many friends to mourn her loss.

G W Weller has secured the services of Fred Friswell, of New York, who is a capable plumber and sheet-metal worker. Estimates will be furnished on such work on these lines. Give us a call.

Amador Pioneers.

Charley Peters, the warhorse pioneer veteran of Jackson, left Tuesday morning for San Francisco to take part in the Admission day festivities in that city as a living reminder of the "days of '49." He is 86 years old, and as spry as many not half that age. He arrived in Jackson 60 years ago this month, and has been here ever since. He wanted the supervisors to put up for his trip to the big show, but the board could not see it as a county charge; so the Native Sons started a list and raised the necessary funds. He went down attired in genuine '49 toggery with pistol and knife and various other ancient trappings. Furthermore he went alone.

W. O. Clark, the pioneer of Drytown and 93 years of age, was also a notable contribution to the celebration from Amador county. We doubt whether any other section of the state can furnish so well preserved a brace of pioneer citizens.

Arm Broken By Fall

Miss Hilda Green, daughter of Mr and Mrs Geo. Green residing on Court street, was unfortunate to fall off a small donkey, which she was riding in a field on the Jones' ranch, on Thursday last, thereby breaking the wrist of her right arm.

A number of small children had assembled in the field and intended to have at least one more good day of pleasure before school commenced, as they expressed it. They had two or three donkeys which were compelled to do all kinds of stunts, several toy pistols were on hand, and a regular rough riders show was to be given. The accident, however, threw a pallor over the affair, and the show was declared off.

Dr. Gail was interviewed by the victim, who had no thought that her arm was broken, but the doctor, after examining the arm found a clean break of the large bone in the wrist, and immediately put the arm in a plaster cast.

LETTER TO COMMUNIST

Bill Nye Declines Offer to Whack Up With Applicant

Dear Sir: Your courteous letter of the first instant, in which you cordially consent to share my wealth and dwell together with me in fraternal sunshine, is duly received. While I dislike to appear cold and distant to one who seems so yearful and clinging, and while I do not wish to be regarded as purse-proud or arrogant, I must decline your kind offer to whack up.

You had not heard, very likely, that I am not a Communist. I used to be, I admit, and the society no doubt neglected to strike my name off the roll of active members. For a number of years I was quite active, as a Communist. I would have been more active, but I had conscientious scruples about being active in anything then.

While you may be perfectly sincere in your belief that the great capitalists like Mr Gould and Mr Vanderbilt should divide with you, you will have great difficulty in making it perfectly clear to them. They will probably demur, and delay, and hem and haw, and procrastinate, until finally they will get out of it in some way. Still, I do not wish to throw cold water on your enterprise. If the other capitalists look favorably on the plan, I will cheerfully co-operate with them. You go and see what you can do with Mr Vanderbilt, and then come to me.

You go on at some length to tell me how the most of the wealth is in the hands of a few men, and then you attack those men and refer to them in a way that makes my blood run cold. You tell the millionaires of America to beware, for the hot breath of a bloody-handed Nemesis is already in the air.

You may say to Nemesis, if you please, that I have a double-barreled shotgun standing at the head of my bed every night, and that I am in the Nemesis business. You also refer to the fact that the sleuth-hounds of eternal justice are camped on the trail of the pampered millionaire, and you ask us to await. If you see the other sleuth-hounds of your society within a week or two, I wish you would say to them that at a regular meeting of the millionaires of this country, after the minutes of the previous meeting had been read and approved, we voted almost unanimously to discourage any sleuth-hound that we found camped on our trail after ten o'clock p. m. Sleuth-hounds who want to ramble over our trails during office hours may do so with the utmost impunity, but after ten o'clock we want to use our trails for other purposes. No man wants to go to the great expense of maintaining a trail winter and summer, and then leave it out nights for other people to use and return it when they get ready.

I do not censure you, however. If you could convince every one of the utility of communism, it would certainly be a great boon to you. To those who are now engaged in feeding themselves with flat beer out of a tomato can, such a chance as you suggest would fall like a ray of sunshine in a rat hole; but alas! it may never be. I tried it a while, but my efforts were fruitless. The effect of my great struggle seemed to be that men's hearts grew more and more stony, and my pantaloon got thinner and thinner on the seat, till it seemed to me that the world never was so cold. Then I made some experiments in manual labor. As I began to work harder and sit down less I found that the world was not so cold. It was only when I sat down a long time that I felt how cold and rough the world really was.

Perhaps it is so with you. Sedentary habits and stale beer are apt to make us morbid. Sitting on the stone door-sills of hallways and public buildings during cold weather is apt to give you an erroneous impression of life.

Of course, I am willing to put my money into a common fund if I am convinced that it is best. I was an inside passenger on a Leadville coach some years ago, when a few of your friends suggested that we all put our money into a common fund, and I was almost the first one to see that they were right. They went away into the mountain to apportion the money they got from our party, but I never got any dividend. Probably they lost my postoffice address.

It Saved His Leg.

"All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica salve cured it, sound and well." Intallible for skin eruptions, eczema, salt rheum, boils, fever sores, burns, scalds, cuts and piles. 25 cents at Spagnoli's drug store.

Carry Arsenal Along

A large auto brought Jackson no less noted visitors on Friday evening last, than the famous actor, James K. Hackett, Thornwall, Mullally, of the United Railways of San Francisco, and C. S. Thomas, a mining engineer of Denver, Colorado. The party were on their way up the mountains on a hunting expedition and carried with them a well developed arsenal, comprising of everything from a Colt revolver to a maximum Nornfelt automatic gun. Upon picking up a copy of the Ledger and reading the account given of the capture of two bears near Doak's ridge, the party decided to go to that locality for their hunting.

At their request to be shown through a mother lode gold mine, they were obliged by W. F. Detert of the Zeila, who escorted them through the mine on Saturday morning.

Hackett finished his season in San Francisco on Wednesday last, and was invited as a guest of Mullally and Thomas to accompany them on a big game hunting expedition.

Moves Into Rectory

Rev. Thos. Shea, rector of the Episcopal churches of Jackson and Sutter Creek, moved into the rectory at No. 53 North street, on Friday last. The clergyman has been living on Summit street in one of Geo. Brown's houses, owing to the fact that the rectory had been leased for a term. The rectory tenants, however, secured another home, and immediately vacated the church property in order to accommodate the clergyman and allow him to occupy his own place of residence.

A new brick chimney will be erected at the rectory of the Episcopal church to displace a pipe which has been doing service since the place was first built. This, we are informed, will greatly reduce the insurance on both church and rectory.

Damages Awarded

A decision rendered by third district court of appeals confirms the judgment of the Calaveras county superior court awarding A. E. Roberts $5760 damages against the Sierra Railroad Company of California. Roberts was injured on June 26, 1906, when a car of dynamite on the train on which he was riding exploded. He had purchased a ticket on that day, but missed the regular passenger train, so with the consent of the division superintendent began his journey on a freight train instead. When the damage case was heard in the lower court, the superintendent claimed that Roberts had agreed to assume all risks, before he was given permission to ride on the freight train. Roberts admitted assuming all risks but contended that he did not agree to be responsible for any negligence of the railroad company, and that it was negligence of the company that permitted the train to be derailed and subsequently caused the explosion of dynamite.

Pitiable Condition

Nick Kukovich, who was brought to Jackson from his place of residence in Amador, where he had been kept under guard by relatives, owing to his tendencies of becoming violently insane, has grown decidedly worse in his incarceration in the insane ward here. A party of Austrians called on the unfortunate man on Saturday afternoon last, and used every effort to try and have the victim divorce some of his deluded ideas. At times he became so rational as to be able to speak a few words intelligently in his native tongue.

The delusions of the victim are about the most pitiable that were ever recorded. As he sits in his padded cell securely strapped to his cot he continually works might and main until his strength is exhausted, drilling imaginary rock with a hand drill and hammer. Then again he pulls on a rope until he lays back tired out from his exertions. At intervals he regains his speech, and then cries that he is caved upon and must drill himself out. He feebly cries he is far down in a mine, and must save himself, pointing to the slate colored walls of his padded cell, he said, "See those walls of rock, and then he went on drilling as if a maniac could.

A kindhearted Austrian had brought him a bag of grapes, but he failed to recognize them, and only ate them when they were fed to him.

THE VOICE

If I were a voice—a persuasive voice— That could travel the wide world through, I would fly on the beams of the morning light, And speak to men with a gentle might, And tell them to be true. I'd fly, I'd fly, o'er the land and sea, Wherever a human heart might be, Telling a tale or singing a song In praise of the right—in blame of the wrong.

If I were a voice—a consoling voice— I'd fly on the wings of the air; The homes of sorrow and guilt I'd seek, And calm and truthful words I'd speak, To save them from despair. I'd fly, I'd fly, o'er the crowded town, And drop, like the happy sunlight, down Into the hearts of suffering men, And teach them to rejoice again.

If I were a voice—a convincing voice— I'd travel with the wind; And whenever I saw the nations torn By warfare, jealousy or scorn, Or hatred of their kind, I'd fly, I'd fly, on the thunder crash, And into their blinded bosoms flash, And, all their evil thoughts subdued, I'd teach them Christian brotherhood.

If I were a voice—a pervading voice— I'd seek the kings of earth; I'd find them alone on their beds at night, And whisper words that should guide them right, Lessons of priceless worth. I'd fly more swift than the swiftest bird, And tell them things they never heard, Truths which the ages for aye repeat, Unknown to the statesmen at their feet.

If I were a voice—an immortal voice— I'd speak in the people's ear; And whenever they shouted "Liberty" Without deserving to be free, I'd make their mission clear. I'd fly I'd fly, on the wings of day, Rebuking wrong on my world-wide way, And making all the earth rejoice— If I were a voice—an immortal voice. CHARLES MACKAY.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.
